DAMAGED WHEAT.
The Big Pie at the Old Mill About Cleaned Up.

The work of sacking damaged wheat at the scene of the flour mill fire is about completed. Less has been saved than was at first expected, and the percentage of the returns to the original value of the lot of grain will be small; just how small it is not yet possible to say.

Some fine earlocks have been or are being shipped to San Francisco, for sale, part being from the wheat which was stored in the mill building, and part from that which was in the elevator. The former is in pretty good condition, but much of the latter is extremely doubtful.

The work of drying is still going on at the Allen cannery, and a good deal of wet grain is still lying in sacks awaiting its turn.

Considerable of the grain has been bought and taken away in small quantities for chicken feed etc., at from 15c to 20c per sack.

Henry B. Thibelen has had charge of the hauling, sale and shipping of the sacked wheat, and has closely and efficiently looked out for the interests of the farmers and the insurance companies who are interested in the wheat.

STAYTON.
Merchant M. M. Batsley had business in Salem, Tuesday.
Arthur Ward, son of Mrs. A. L. Shelley, of this city, has returned to his home to visit with his parents for the winter, after an absence in Centralia, Wn., for two years.
Miss Clara Doty is home again after a few weeks' visit with her sister in Centralia, Wn.

Mrs. W. H. Hobson and family have moved bag and baggage to Salem, where they will join Mr. Hobson, who is in business there, and make their future home.

A team belonging to one of the city draymen, standing in the saw mill yard, Tuesday, took a notion to leave its driver while he was loading the wagon and ran up Water street to Third, when it was stopped by one of our business men who averted what might have been a scene of destruction.

Thomas Badger and family left the city this week for Ashland, Ore., where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harden and family have moved to Corvallis, where they will stay for the winter and give their son and daughter a chance at the Agricultural College.

Several dwellings and business houses have been and are being treated to a few coats of paint, which adds a great deal to the appearance of our little city.

A Chautauque reading circle is about to be launched by some of Stayton's young ladies and gentlemen.

A LIFE SAVED.
Dr. J. F. Cook, the Botanical Specialist, Succeeded Where "Other" Fails.

To whom it may concern:
This is to certify that Bertha P. Conner, of Mt. Angel precinct, Marion county, Oregon, has suffered from a cancerous growth in the left ear for about three years. The growth was cut out twice and burned out once by Albany Physicians, but the growth came back as bad as ever, and pained her so badly that she had to be taken from school. After three weeks' treatment by Dr. J. F.
Cook, of Salem, Oregon, the Botanical Specialist, the growth entirely disappeared, and at this date, four months since treatment was begun, the growth has not reappeared, and the ear has returned to its normal condition, and she is entirely healed leaving only the scars inflicted by the Albany doctors.

I hereby certify that the above statement is absolutely true, and that Bertha P. Conner, the person mentioned in the affidavit, has resided in my family since early childhood, bearing the relationship to me of niece. H. C. Linn.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this eighth day of June, 1899, W. W.
Hall, county clerk of Marion county Oregon.
